Ted Holder is a native West Texan, born in Lubbock and has lived in Levelland for the past 30 plus years. He has recently retired as Police Chief after 23 years and has a total of 33 years in law enforcement.

He joined the Levelland Rotary club in 1983 and served as President in 1987. He has some 13 years perfect attendance and has stayed active in the club activities. He has served on various district committees such as Governors Representative, was Chairman of the District World Community Service Committee from 1991-1993, and has served as the District International Service Director since 1994. He was an Assistant District Governor in 1998 and 1999 He Co-Chaired the District Conference Committee in 1996. He has been Awarded Rotary's highest International Service Award "Service Above Self", in 1992 and in 1999. This is usually awarded only once in a lifetime. He has made numerous trips abroad for Rotary and has had several projects in countries around the world. His pet project is the various Mexico projects that have developed since 1988 and he has stayed active there with this district and other clubs over the country. He has been active in several community boards over the years and has served as the President of the Texas Police Chief's Association.

He married Tammie McDonald in 2003 and they have a daughter, Ashley. Tammie is still pursuing her career and helping me in our upcoming year as District Governor.
