Thinking, talent, time, treasure

June 2006

Dear Amigos,

Before the 2005-06 Rotary year ends, we have an excellent chance to secure a significant milestone for The Rotary Foundation: the celebration of our one millionth Paul Harris Fellow. An achievement of this magnitude is possible only because Rotarians like you give of what many call the four Ts – your thinking, talent, time, and treasure.

Thinking

Hope for the less fortunate begins when we start thinking about the positive changes we can make in others' lives. In essence, we Create Awareness and Take Action to address needs worldwide.

Talent

When Rotarians give of their talent and expertise to develop projects that build stronger communities, we transform the lives of millions of people, both locally and internationally. We are called to Service Above Self.

Time

When Rotarians devote their time to volunteer in the spirit of reaching out to others who need our help, we simply make the world a better place. We encompass the Object of Rotary.

Treasure

When Rotarians generously give of their treasure to support programs that educate, comfort, feed, heal, relieve thirst, shelter, and advance world understanding and peace, we find meaningful and lasting solutions to global problems. We are The Rotary Foundation.

When you take the four Ts to heart and contribute to our Foundation, you make a life-changing difference for many others. You also inspire your fellow Rotarians to follow your example.

In just a few short weeks, the 2005-06 Rotary year will end and Rotary's first year into its second century of service will be history. We have a unique opportunity to leave an indelible mark on Rotary's history, if we can achieve the one millionth Paul Harris Fellow by 30 June. Your help is needed to accomplish this goal and to reach our annual giving goal of US$105 million.
