19 Shopping Days Until Christmas

A Storybook Christmas

Come and help put the stickers in the books and package them for delivery to the first grade children. Our work day will be Saturday, December 9, 9:30 a.m. at the DeZavala Elementary School, 705 N. Lee St. (Corner of Louisiana and Lamesa).

We are also looking for readers of this year's book to the first graders; especially male readers. The teachers are telling us men reading to the little ones has a longer lasting impression, but anyone wishing to be involved, please contact Gene Spires.

This week's mankinds money will be dedicated to our server, Jeanette.

From the Rotarian...

More than 1,200 Rotarians from 42 countries gathered in New York to learn how to meet humanitarian needs worldwide by working more effectively with United Nations agencies.

The annual Rotary Day at the UN, held 4 November, featured panels on literacy, water, health, and hunger. Speakers included officials from the UN and its agencies, who encouraged collaboration and praised Rotary's work with the World Health Organization and UNICEF in the global effort to eradicate polio. Since 1985, Rotary has contributed more than US$616 million to a polio-free world.

Addressing this year's theme, "Rotary's unfinished business," Boyd told the audience: "Even though we will never bring about a perfect world, we have no excuse not to try....And if we leave a better world than was left to us, then we have not failed."

Dear Santa, I really want some tools and a toolbelt to carry them on just like Daddy has. I want a hammer and a screwdriver so I can help Daddy fix things. I've been a really good girl.

If Santa is going to bring my puppy, how is he going to get him down the chimney without hurting him. And, if you can bring me a brother or sister, it doesn't matter what they look like, or what color they are, or how old they are, ( just not real old, like 60years old) someone who likes to play scoccor and basketball with me. And if you bring me a baby sister, then she can share my room, and I will take care of her always, I promise. Thanks Santa

Thanks for last year and please don't forget my cousin. She can't help but be bad.

Don't spill the milk I left for you. My mommy will get mad if you do.

Please bring me toys that my big sister won't like so I can have toys of my own.
