12 Shopping Days Until Christmas

Bill's December Message (from the Rotarian)

The end of the calendar year is a time of celebration in many traditions. Lorna and I would like to take this opportunity to thank those of you who send us your greetings during this season. Unfortunately, we cannot respond to you all as we would like. Therefore, we will make a contribution to The Rotary Foundation as our expression of thanks

Family Month

In December, Rotary focuses on community projects that support families and celebrates its own extended family of Rotary

To our new Rotarians... We need You!

Our committees are looking for your helping hands and hearts. Check with Jack Campbell to find out which ones might be of interest to you. The art auction is coming up, as is the golf tournament. The Literacy Committee needs more members... just to name a few. Be involved.

In 1912, then Postmaster General Frank Hitchcock authorized local postmasters to allow individuals or institutions to use letters addressed to Santa Claus for philanthropic purposes. This tradition is carried on today, with Post Offices across the country making "Letters to Santa" available to individuals and groups upon request.

More Letters from Santa

Santa, I love you so much. Please bring me a kitty cat and surprises. Bring sissy Haley a puppy and Mommy a husband. I love you. Give Rudolph a kiss on that red nose!

I would like a little red bear for Christmas. I'd like a Dora movie that comes on television. Santa Claus, will you please come to my house?

I would like a toy gun and a train set with a remote control. How do the reindeer fly?

Please bring me a princess house. I like presents. And I would like a Dora dress. Thank you for bringing me some presents. My granny and my brother and my uncle would like presents, too.

Will you please bring me a big car? And a race car that goes around. Santa Claus, do you have a Christmas tree?

Please bring me some dress-up clothes and a princess crown. And I would like some slippers and some lipstick. And I want some movies, too. And a watch. Santa, please make sure the Grinch doesn't take over the world.

Hello again Santa. I saw you at the mall and told you I wanted a big Barbie house and a Bella dance mat. My Pappo said he will get me the dance mat, so don't worry about it. Mom will say I wasn't nice so talk to my daddy.
