The mission of The Rotary Foundation is to enable Rotarians to advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace through the improvement of health, the support of education, and the alleviation of poverty.

It is said that there is a Rotary meeting being held someplace in the world every hour of every day. If you attended one meeting per day it would take nearly 80 years to visit all of the more than 29,000 Rotary clubs in the world, and by that time no doubt, there would be thousands more new clubs to attend.

There are many interesting relationships and things to learn as you become acquainted with the 29,000 clubs in the wide world of Rotary.

Pension Protection Act of 2006 can help you

An exciting opportunity may help you make your charitable gifts more effective. The Pension Protection Act of 2006 allows certain individuals to make tax-free contributions to charity from their individual retirement accounts. If you've ever wished that you could use your IRA for charitable gifts, then now is the time.

Until December 2007, this act allows U.S. donors at least age 70½ to transfer up to $100,000 from their IRA directly to a qualified charity, such as The Rotary Foundation, without increasing annual gross federal income taxes. This transfer may also satisfy the mandatory minimum withdrawal, which may provide additional tax benefits.

There's limited time to take advantage of this opportunity. Call The Rotary Foundation at 847-866-3380 for more information on how a donation from your IRA can fulfill your charitable objectives with the Foundation earlier than may have been otherwise possible.

Are you taking your family to Salt Lake City for the RI Convention? The Rotarian magazine wants you! We will be there shooting portraits for a special feature on "Rotary Families."

The magazine is selecting Rotary families to take part in the photo shoot. If you're interested, send an e-mail to Rotarian@rotary.org with "Family photo" as the subject line. Tell us how many family members you'll have at the convention and where you're traveling from. And if there's more than one Rotarian in your family, be sure to let us know!

OLCC Continued...

Which author on the list is most held by OCLC libraries?

William Shakespeare, followed by the United States government, Charles Dickens, Mark Twain, and Giuseppe Verdi.

How far down the OCLC Top 1000 list do you have to go to get to a live author?

Jim Davis' Garfield is number 15 on the list. (Four of the 5 top works by living authors are cartoons!) And in case you're wondering, Harper Lee's To Kill A Mockingbird is the highest-ranking work by a living female author. It ranked 146.

What is the highest-ranking work written by a woman?

Wuthering Heights, by Emily Brontë, ranks 28 on the list. Jane Eyre, by Charlotte Brontë, is ranked 30, and Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice ranks 32.

Who is the most written-about person in WorldCat?

Jesus Christ.

What's the top mystery novel held by libraries?

The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes. It ranks 192.

Which author has the most works on the OCLC Top 1000 list?

William Shakespeare (with 37 works). He is followed by Charles Dickens (16 works) and John Grisham (13 works).

How many different authors are on the OCLC Top 1000 list?

576 authors made the list, not counting the anonymous ones.

What works didn't make the list?

Many very wonderful works didn't. What matters, though, is whether your library has the books you consider to be wonderful. And if not, what also matters is whether your library has the support it needs to support your needs.

One thing life has taught me: if you are interested, you never have to look for new interests. They come to you. When you are genuinely interested in one thing, it will always lead to something else. ~ Eleanor Roosevelt
